

The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire

Waiting for the van to arrive
The prisoners were lined up outside
Jumped a wall, hitcheda ride, and now I'm here to say
Love you, baby, anyway - oh, yeah

The sky is burnin', I believe my soul is on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire

Ran across the country fields in all terrain
They had guns and dogs and everything
Swam a river tryin' to lose my trail
But they caught me, under the bridge - oh, yeah

The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I'm learning, the key to my desire - oh, yeah

[Solo]

The sky is burnin', I believe my soul's on fire
You are, I am learning, the key to my desire

The judge said, this man's a danger to humanity
We're gonna lock him up and throw away the key
Now baby, your love has sent me to jail
But I'd rather die than see you with another man

It's burnin' baby, mm, mm
I believe my souls on fire, mm mm
I believe my souls on fire
Working on the railroad, every day
But they can't keep me here
And I'm not gonna stay
I got to get outta this place
I'll see you, baby
It's burnin'
Yeah, it's burnin'
I believe my souls on fire
Keep on burnin'
Ah, yeah yeah, ahhh-oh-ohoh
Keep on burnin'
