

Howling winds keep screaming 'round
Doors are locked and bolted now

And the rain comes pouring down
As the thing crawls into town

Straight out of hell
Stalking his victim

One of a kind
Don't look behind you

Night Crawler
Night Crawler
Night Crawler...

Beware the beast in black
You know he's coming back

Sanctuary is being sought
Homing in its cry distorts

Whispered prayers a last resort
Terror struck they know they're caught

Straight out of hell
Stalking his victim

One of a kind
Don't look behind you

Night Crawler
Night Crawler
Night Crawler...

Beware the beast in black
You know he's coming back

[Solo]

As night is falling
They'll hear

The end is drawing near
Their last rites echo on the wind

Huddled in the cellar
Daring not to move or breathe
Fingernails start scratching
Clawing at the windows
Atmosphere's electric
Hiding in the darkness
Death comes in an instant
Souls ascend to heaven

Fear caught in their eyes
As the creature cries
On the outside wall
Come to me, it calls
As it now descend the stairs
Is so futile from its glare
As they hoped it would
While it feasts on flesh and blood

Straight out of hell

One of a kind

Night Crawler
Night Crawler
Night Crawler
Night Crawler
Night Crawler...

Beware the beast in black
