

D G Bm A
 D G Bm A

D G
 Bm A
 D Five miles off the ground G listenin' to the sound
 Bm Of those jet engines pushin' me from A California to JFK
 D Somewhere down there my friends G are livin' lives I once lived with them
 Bm Nothin really special but the thought of it kinda A makes me wish I stayed

D Home G
 Bm Home A

Bm I can't help but wonder G did I choose right
 D Leavin' all that behind to try my A luck out on the coast
 Bm Still I'm feelin' often G that I'm caught in the middle
 D Between where I'm at and that A place I miss the most...
 A Place I miss the most

D Home G
 Bm Sometimes getting lost is what I A need to find my way
 D Home G
 Bm City lights are pretty but they're A just so far away

D 12 AM return flight G red-eye took off at midnight
 Bm Flight attendant dims the lights and all the A passengers dream away
 D Do they know I'm up here G far away but my heart's still near
 Bm I swear I hear 'em laughin from that screened in A porch out by the lake

D Home G
 Bm Home A

Bm And I can't help but wonder G did I choose right
 D Leavin' all that behind to try my A luck out on the coast
 Bm Still I'm feelin often G that I'm caught in the middle
 D Between where I'm at and that A place I miss the most...
 A place I miss the most

D Home G
 Bm Sometimes getting lost is what I A need to find my way
 D Home G
 Bm City lights are pretty but they're A just so far away

Bm Aint it funny how time goes by G things that matter most get crystal clear
 Bm Whatever I was looking for has G always been right
 A here A

E Home A
 C# Sometimes getting lost is what I B need to find my way
 E Home A
 C# City lights are pretty but they're B just so far away