

Well I remember when I met you baby, back a long time ago
Well you were telling me you loved me, I bet you just didn't know
Well now you say that you've got news for me, well I know it's the hurtin kind
Well I know you're gonna tell me, baby you can never be mine

And you keep on screaming at me as I'm going out the door

Respect me in the morning, I don't love you no more

Well I've been coming here loving you baby, seven long nights a week
But every time I leave you, you're right back out on the street
Well you been sayin' you'll be true to me, my friends say yer tellin' me lies
And if you don't straighten up your act, I think I'm gonna blacken your eyes

Still you keep on screaming at me, as I'm walking out the door - yeah-eah

Well, I remember when I met you baby, back a long time ago
You were telling me you loved me, how much you just didn't know, know
But now you say you got news for me, well I know it's a hurtin' kind
I know you're gonna tell me, baby you can never be mine

And you keep on screaming at me, as I'm going out the door

Oh! Respect me in your morning, and don't come 'round here no more!

And you keep on screaming at me, as I'm going out the door

Respect me in the morning, or don't come 'round here no more
