

Tomorrow, I'm waiting 'til tomorrow
And now I need to sleep this feelin' off and make it through today

Next time, you'll make it right the next time
I worship at your alter of lies, let me be your sacrifice
Insight, I see you in the same light
I hate you let me stay 'til tomorrow
If you love me you'll follow

Let me out tonight!
Let me out tonight!
Let me out!

It's bitter and so sweet, it's everything you are
It knocks me off my feet, my world is where you are
There's a piece of me inside your heart
That twists a wrong to right

Blind me, your love can be so blinding
And everywhere the sun is shining down, please god let it rain
Help me, you said you'd stop, release me
No right is wrong the sun shine blistered all the pain away

Let me out tonight!
Let me out tonight!
Let me out!

It's bitter and so sweet, it's everything you are
It knocks me off my feet, my world is where you are
There's a piece of me inside your heart
That twists the wrongs to right

Let me out tonight!
Let me out tonight!
Let me out!

[Solo]

Let me out tonight!
Let me out tonight!
Let me out!

It's bitter and so sweet, it's everything you are
It knocks me off my feet, my world is where you are
There's a little piece inside your heart
That twists your wrongs to right
You've got to let me kill this love tonight
